Silvertones to Inaugurate St. Joe Concert Series

By Jim O'Brien

"They sound like a great organ, played by an unusually talented virtuoso." Thus speaks the Cincinnati Enquirer of the Silvertones, an ensemble of five Negroes who will perform in the college auditorium on Tuesday evening, Nov. 8.

An appealing program has been arranged by Mr. Richard Kilmer, director of the concert series.

The selections will vary from the solemnity of Bizet's "Agnus Dei" and Gounod's "Benedictus" to the rhythms of "Swing Low Sweet Chariot" and "I Got Plenty of Nuthin'."

Receive Universal Acclaim

Even though each member of the Silvertones is an individual artist, the group continually strives for a co-ordinated effect of harmony. The result has constantly merited plaudits from critics in the United States and foreign countries.

The Silvertones are also a diplomatic asset to our country. They recently returned from a State Department Cultural Tour of "Good Will" and culture from an American viewpoint. Another world-wide tour is scheduled to begin next spring.

The group is composed of three women and two men.

Geraldine Overstreet, soprano, is a native of Indianapolis. Her leading roles in "Aida" with the Chicago Opera Company, the "Mikado," and "Porgy and Bess" have won her wide acclaim.

Joyce Robinson, mezzo, is from New York. She has effectively portrayed the title role in "Samson and Delilah," "Carmen," and "Finian's Rainbow."

Feature Symphony Pianist

Gladys Kinchen, a Chicagoan, is the pianist. She has played Chopin and Bach with some of the leading symphonies.

Garfield Henry, tenor, organizes and directs the undertaking. Henry is noted for his arranging, vocal accomplishments, and general musicianship. He is from Pennsylvania.

Andrew Frierson, bass-baritone, is a native of Kentucky. Considered by musicians as a potential great, he has already impressed critics in such productions as "Porgy and Bess," the "Marriage of Figaro," and "Showboat."

Scientific Works

Given To Library

An extensive private library of scientific works has been bequeathed to St. Joseph's library as a part of the late Prof. Fred L. Serviss.

At the time of his death the professor was head of the geology department of Purdue University. The Serviss collection was the departmental library for Purdue's geology field.

Most of its 1800 volumes cover geology and engineering subjects; the remaining works treat other diverse areas of science. All except 500 volumes are new to our library.

Carlson Heads Cast Of 'Dial M for Murder'

Jack Carlson, Ruth Nelson and Bernie Balas will take the leading roles in the 'Columbian Players' production of Dial M for Murder.

The suspense play, written by Frederick Knott, will be presented in the Collegeville auditorium on Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 19 and 20.

Jack Carlson will be starred as a cunning ex-tennis star who improvises a hasty revision in his plan for his wealthy wife's murder, after his first carefully-laid plan backfires. This is the role played by Maurice Evans during the Broadway run and by Ray Milland in the motion picture version.

Ruth Nelson Takes Wife's Role

Ruth Nelson will be seen as his doubly jeopardized wife, the role performed in the film by Grace Kelly. Bernie Balas will take the part of the man who stands by her in her ordeal (portrayed by Robert Cummings in the film).

The part of the bland persevering police inspector whose severity is masked by the most elegant of manners will be taken by Ed Hebbda. This is the rich part that John Williams played in the stage presentation and in the movie.

Bill Schuler will take the part of Capt. Lesgate and William Walters will play Thompson.

Knott Awarded "Edgar"

The Mystery Screen Writers of America awarded author Knott an "Edgar" (Edgar Allen Poe) for his suspense play. This was the first time it had been awarded for a foreign play.

The play is under the direction of Mr. Ralph Cappuccilli.

Various chairmen for the production are: John J. White, publicity; Mike Freiburg, properties; Joe Turk, make-up; Bob Kilbourne, sound; Ray Malik, lighting; and Joe Bak, set construction. Dick Rezek is the stage manager.

Commerce Club Lie Detector Test Sparks Meeting

A demonstration of a lie detector test by the Kane Service of Chicago highlighted the last meeting of the Commerce Club.

The next meeting will be held in mid-November when a faculty panel discussion will take place. A field trip has been scheduled for Dec. 8, and the final meeting this semester will be in January.

President Dick Obergfell, senior from Indianapolis, expects the highest membership in the history of the club by the end of the semester. All business, economic, and social science students are invited to join the club but everyone is welcome at meetings when a speaker is scheduled.

Other club officers are: vice-president George McCarthy, senior from Chicago; treasurer Dick Lorey, senior from Jasper, Ind.; and secretary Bernie Balas, junior from Gary, Ind.

Precious Blood Brothers Assume New Positions

Brother Damian Gray, C.P.P.S., recently began his duties in the Collegeville library. Brother assumed his work shortly after arriving from St. Mary's Seminary, Burkettsville, Ohio, where he was professed on August 15 of this year.

Brother's home is in Youngstown, Ohio. Here he attended St. Patrick's grammar school, and was graduated from South high school. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Gray still reside there.

Brother Damian has two brothers, Robert, who attends Youngstown College, and Kenneth, who is in high school. He also has a married sister, Mrs. Dorothy Gustafson.

Enjoys Campus Activities

He entered the Novitiate on October 24, 1953, and after his profession immediately received his appointment here. Thus far, he says, he has found both St. Joe and his work extremely interesting.

Brother Camillus R. Pollock, former director of the Health Service at Saint Joseph's, has been transferred to St. Mary's Novitiate in Burkettsville, Ohio, where he is now performing general services.

Replaced by Nurse

Brother Camillus, who had served as infirmarian at St. Joseph's for almost three years, has been replaced by Miss Nellie Harris, registered nurse, who has taken over duties at the Dwenger Hall infirmary.

Brother Camillus' position was previously held by brother Dennis, who was replaced when brother Camillus was appointed as Director of Health Service in the summer of 1952. He left for St. Mary's the latter part of September. Brother, a native of Centralia, Illinois, received his training in the fundamentals of nursing at St. Elizabeth's hospital in Dayton, Ohio, and made his profession in the order of the Precious Blood brotherhood in 1941.

The Silvertones, a vocal ensemble, will present the first concert of the year in the Collegeville auditorium. The concert, which will be held on Nov. 8, is the first of four under the moderation of Mr. Richard Kilmer.

Mass Servers Discuss New Training Plan

by Urban Thobe

A training program for students desiring to learn how to serve Mass and a plan by which the server can receive Holy Communion at the side altars were discussed in a recent meeting of the Don Bosco Club.

The club is an organization for students who assist the priests at the many daily Masses offered in the college chapel.

New Serving Arrangements

Arrangements permitting students to receive Communion while serving side-altar Masses are now in effect. When a priest needs a server, he turns on the light above the east sacristy door.

After a student arrives to serve, he can indicate to the priest his intention to receive and the priest will place a small wafer on the paten. The server can then receive Communion at the proper time in the Mass instead of interrupting his Mass to approach the main altar to receive.

Design Training Program

A training program will be designed to instruct every student who wishes to begin serving or to refresh his memory of the actions and Latin responses. However, Rev. William Eilerman, moderator of the club, is willing to instruct immediately anyone interested in learning to assist at Mass.

The instruction presents the student with an opportunity to help fulfill his obligation in the service of God as a Catholic and to gain additional graces by participating in a more intimate manner than is possible in the pew.

Reading Clinic Receives Acclaim

Special recognition was given to the St. Joseph's Reading Clinic in the Sept. 19 issue of the Intercollegiate Press Bulletin. The bulletin is circulated among the various colleges and universities in the United States.

The bulletin stated that: "Undoubtedly one of the best examples of the 'personal' attitude taken toward the student at St. Joseph's College is the Reading Clinic. Seldom can one find a program at any college or university which goes so far out of its way to provide for the very best interests of the student."

The bulletin went on to give a short history of the development of the clinic, a description of some of the aids used, and the aim and purpose of the clinic.

Rev. Ernest Lucas is in charge of the program which has a record enrollment of 175 this semester.

Phase Planning Well Underway

Editor-in-chief Charles Rohan has announced that the general aim of the staff this year is to have the entire layout of the yearbook completed at the latest by Christmas.

He emphasized that the reason last year's edition is not out for distribution is because of the delayed procedure of last year's staff.

Under the direction of head layout editors Chuck Vietzen and John J. White, the first dummy layout has been completed, and is presently being checked over by the Phase faculty advisor, Rev. James Hinton.

Assisting the layout editors on the layout staff are: John Scales, Don Pfahler, Joe Borga, Dave Carey, Tom Biel, Jerry Walsh, Jim Deegan and Bob Kilbourne.

A meeting of the copy staff was held on Thursday, Oct. 20. There copy editor Mike Hardin presented plans of the literary portion of the yearbook to members of his staff.

The Phase sports editor is Tom Philipp. Sports layout is being done by Jim Archer and Bernie Balas.

Fall Frolics To Feature Franz Jackson Combo

The Franz Jackson Combo, featuring Cookie, will play at the annual Fall Frolics Dance. This dance, sponsored by the Monogram club, will take place in Raleigh Hall the evening of Nov. 5.

The Jackson combo has appeared at the college for dances on numerous occasions in the past five years. Cookie, his vocalist, has received much campus acclaim for his renditions of many popular songs.

Only 125 couples will be admitted to the dance because of the limited amount of space in the hall, according to chairman Jim McPolin. Tickets, which went on sale yesterday, are priced at $3 a couple.

All housing arrangements are to be taken care of in the same manner as for other date dances this year. This means that each student attending will have to make his own arrangements.

Marv Hackman is in charge of decorations for the dance. Other committee chairmen are: Dan Lyman, tickets; Bob Companik, publicity; and Joe Kneip, housing.

The dance will run from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

325 Couples Attend Homecoming Dance

One of the more humorous hall decorations for Homecoming was this scene in front of Gaspar Hall. It portrayed a rampaging Puma which had broken out of its cage, raced down a football field, and entered the doghouse of the Butler Bulldog. The award winning hall for the best decoration was the Ad. Building. STUFF apologizes for not being able to get a picture of the winning decoration.

A crowd of 325 couples danced to the music of Dan Belloc at this year's Homecoming. Numerous alumni and faculty members were also present to celebrate the Homecoming victory of the Pumas earlier in the day.

Dan Belloc went strictly instrumental throughout the entire evening. Unfortunately a microphone could not be set up and the assistance of Belloc's vocalist was lost. The Counts, the Revels' band, made a very successful debut here at St. Joe.

Due to unfortunate circumstances the queen, Florence Gallagher, did not appear until almost 11 p.m. Miss Gallagher was crowned by Rev. Raphael Gross upon her arrival.

The queen's court included: Miss Mary O'Connell, who accompanied Jiggs Gallagher to the dance; Miss Patricia Glod, who was escorted by Bill Gleason; and Miss Celeste Marquox, who was Rich Flynn's date.

Seated at the royal table were Miss Gallagher and her escort James Babusek, Miss O'Connell and Jiggs Gallagher.

Both the main floor and the intramural floor of the fieldhouse were decorated for the dance. The main floor was decorated with silhouettes of football players on a background of white. Red and blue indirect lighting was used. The intramural court decorations consisted of red and white streamers. On the west wall was a huge "S. J." On this, names of the football players appeared. Also in the monogram were pictures of the coaches.

The pre-game parade stopped town traffic for a half an hour. Instead of the original 5, 10 and 15 dollar prizes to be awarded to best-decorated cars, Jerry Stano received a $5 consolation award. This was the only award given.

The hall decorations contest was won by the Ad. Building. A plaque will be awarded at a later date.

The Pep rally was highlighted by Willy Walters' skit. Assistant coach O'Connell represented coach Jauron and the team in their absence.

A standout feature of the Homecoming parade was this float picturing a football player about to throw a pass. The float was entered in the parade by Merlino Hall. Three prizes were to be awarded by the Student Council for the best-decorated cars of the afternoon. The award was changed to one prize because of the poor response by the students to the contest.

A capacity crowd of 325 couples attended the week-end dance which was held in the fieldhouse. Dan Belloc supplied the music for the first part of the evening and then the Counts, a jazz combo, took over the bandstand for the Revels. An unforeseen electrical difficulty made it impossible to use Belloc's vocalist, although the wiring problem was solved in time for the Revels.

Florence Gallagher, Miss Chicago of 1955, reigned as queen of St. Joseph's Homecoming. She received her regal crown and cape at the latter part of the evening's festivities. (Photos by Davoust)

Red and blue indirect lighting was used with great effect as a part of the decorations for the Homecoming dance. A huge "S. J." monogram bearing the names of the football team and pictures of the coaches highlighted the decorations. Silhouettes of the players and red and white streamers were also used by the sophomore class in their attempt at creating a Homecoming atmosphere.

A scene familiar to the Homecoming football game was this of a Butler back being swarmed under by a host of white-jerseyed Pumas. Bulldog fumbles aided the St. Joe eleven greatly in their successful attempt to retain the ICC lead. An overflow crowd, including the queen, attended the game.

Once again a Butler ball carrier meets a solid wall of St. Joe tacklers. The Pumas finally won the contest by a 28-13 score. The loss dropped the highly touted Indianapolis squad into a third-place tie with Valparaiso.

Varsity Views Three Fumbles Prove Costly As Pumas Lose to Aces, 26-13

By Tom Phillipp

Another game, another Homecoming, another victory. An experienced Butler squad, built around fullback Leroy Thompson, tasted defeat at the hands of a determined Puma eleven in a thrilling contest. Thompson, behind an aggressive front line, left an impressive performance, particularly in the second half. He is presently only 103 yds. shy of the record 538 yds. in rushing, set last year by Evansville's Ken Lutterbach.

Last Saturday Evansville's nightmare went to pasture to fatten its 34-point per game average, in a successful bid for the conference co-championship. For the first time in conference play the Jauron-men had to come from behind to prove their worth. It was not enough, however, as the Aces made four Puma fumbles inside their 30 yd. line pay off. Their superior backfield and heavy line had to battle with everything they had into the waning minutes of the game when Lutterbach intercepted a Tite pass for his fourth T.D. of the game.

The Aces still have two conference contests remaining, while St. Joe finishes against Ball State Saturday.

As a result of last week's play, St. Joseph's Ralph Tite tied conference leader Gorden Helms of Valpo for number of touchdown passes with four. Both he and Bob Hamman are also now tied for second place in scoring with their 30 points apiece.

In team play, the Collegeville eleven still boasts the toughest defense with a 10-point per game average. In 252 plays, the opposition have tallied only 180 yds. per game. One factor in this enviable record which includes two shut-outs is the Pumas' ability to retain possession throughout the games. Their total of 304 offensive plays is 45 more than second place Valparaiso's sum.

In the first four I.C.C. conflicts, the St. Joe men recorded a 43.7 yds. per game passing average and a 192 yds. per game rushing mark, placing fifth and fourth respectively in the conference. Their 97 yds. lost in rushing is the lowest in the league, however.

Intramural Scoreboard

By John F. White

Gene Eifrid led the Noll Lions to a one sided victory over the Vets in the Championship game of the Student Council tourney. Eifrid tossed four passes for touchdowns to dominate all the scoring as the Vets fell to the Lions 26 to 0.

The Vets made their way to the final game by a hard fought victory over the frosh Left-Overs from Drexel. Early in the second half of this game Mike Bateman of the Vets caught Gagliano behind the goal line for a safety to provide the margin of victory for the winners as the game ended with the Vets on top 2-0.

The Trojans of Gaspar gave the Lions a real scare as they held them scoreless until late in the second half. Art Holacek of the Lions stopped a Trojan ball carrier behind the line to break the scoring deadlock. Ed DeWald's 10 yard run for a T.D. in the closing minutes put the game on ice for the Lions as they triumphed 9-0.

About 200 students jammed the sidelines in front of Science Hall to see one of the most bitterly contested games ever played in the Intramural Leagues. They saw the Senior Bombers from Bennett Hall fall to Junior Lions in a skirmish that featured everything from stitches to comedy.

The game was scoreless until early in the second period when Joe Horney intercepted a Bomber pass deep in Bennett territory to set up the Lions only touchdown. Eifrid then flipped a short pass to Horney in the end zone for the score. The losers were seriously hampered by the loss of Dick Obergfell, their fine defensive halfback, early in the game.

Ted Bieniasz and Jake Schmitz pushed West Seifert closer to the top in the All Sports race by placing first and second in the football throwing contest. Both men heaved the pigskin over 60 yards.

The I.M. football league this year has two divisions. The Eastern is composed of all freshman teams and the Western includes six upper-class squads and two frosh.

In the Eastern Division, the Science Dorm has two victories. They edged out the East Seifert Blue Blazers 2-0 and beat the Flubs 7-0 as Buzzy Owens threw 10 yards to Frank Hoyne for the only score. In other frosh league play the Basement Bums were defeated by the Blazers 10-0 after dropping their hallmates the Td. Building Clowns 6-0. The Left-Overs cracked the Turkey Lovers 13-0 and the 8-Balls lost by forfeit to the Flubs.

Powered by Rich Flynn, the Noll Hall Jayvees (Noll Nine), are making a name for themselves as they won their first two games in Western division play. "Leon" Mitchell has been outstanding on defense for the Nine.

Despite the urgings of their coach, Mr. Pupo, the Chi-Guys of East Seifert were unable to break the winning streak of the Lions. The frosh were always in sight of a possible upset as they fell to the powerful Juniors 12-0.

Anyone wondering who the diminutive Puma was holding the stick at the I.M. games this past week? It was Louie Dwinell, Dick's little brother. Louie, who is all of five years, stayed a week with his big brother.

Ron Tonielli (right) attempts a run against the Noll Hall intramural league leaders. Noll eventually won the contest from the West Seifert team to retain their league lead. (Photo by Davoust)

The annual award for the most valuable player in the Homecoming game this year went to George Sherwood for his outstanding play at right end. The alert defenseman intercepted three Bulldog passes and recovered a fumble to aid the Puma cause. In conference play, the 6', 170 lb. sophomore from Long Beach, Cal., has shared five aerials for 67 yards and a 13.4 yard average.

SJ Drops Butler For Fourth Win In League Play

St. Joe College solidified their hold on first place in the Indiana Collegiate Conference by downing Butler University 28-13 before a capacity Homecoming day crowd on October 15.

The Pumas took advantage of Butler's fumbles to win their fourth game of the season.

Tite Scores First

The Jauronmen scored their first touchdown early in the first quarter when Butler fumbled a St. Joe punt and fullback Norb Daigle recovered for the Pumas on the Bulldogs' 2 yard line. On the next play quarterback Ralph Tite sneaked over for the score. Merle Effing added the extra point.

The second St. Joe tally came within a few minutes of the first when a Butler drive stalled on their own 47 as the Pumas held for four downs. On the first play after taking over the ball, Norb Daigle, freshman fullback, found daylight over his own left tackle and went all the way for the TD. Merle Effing's extra point made the score 14-0 in favor of St. Joe.

Butler picked up their first touchdown when their big right tackle, Jim Baker crashed through to block a St. Joe punt and then fell on it in the end zone for the score. The extra point was wide to make the score St. Joe 14, Butler 6.

Sherwood Recovers Fumble

The Pumas got their final TD of the first half when Butler again fumbled a St. Joe punt on their own 38 yard line and George Sherwood, sophomore end, recovered for the Jauronmen. Four plays later Tite went over from 1 yard out. Terry Biernat converted the extra point to make the score 21-6 St. Joe at the end of the half.

The Pumas played on the defense for the greater part of the second half when Butler scored their second touchdown as a result of a St. Joe fumble.

By Dick Bodney

St. Joseph's designs on the Indiana Collegiate Conference championship were, temporarily at least, halted Saturday as the Pumas dropped their first conference game of the season to Evansville College by the score of 26-13 at Evansville.

The Aces took advantage of St. Joe's timely miscues to gain the victory as they turned two intercepted passes into touchdowns and recovered three Puma fumbles deep in their own territory.

Navy Pier Ends St. Joe Season

by Dick Obergfell

After suffering their first conference setback, the Pumas will return home for a three game stand. St. Joe plays host to Ball State, Heidelberg, and Navy Pier.

The Cardinals of Ball State are the only road-block in the way of the big Red in their bid for a share of the ICC crown. The Muncie squad are 1-3 in the conference, with the lone league win being at the expense of Indiana State. They have a 3-3 mark over-all.

Cards Boast Strong Passing

The Puma pass defenders will have their hands full trying to stop the tossing of quarterback Lenny Buczkowski. The Card's signal caller completed 18 of 39 passes for three touchdowns and 268 yards in four games this season.

Buczkowski's favorite target is senior Ernie Butler. Butler and tackle Ralph Cook have been on the All-Conference squads in past years. Another standout is halfback, Sonny Grady. Grady, in his senior year, has been one of the state's top scorers in the past three years.

First Home Night Game

The Ball State contest will be St. Joe's first home night game of the season. It will be played at the Rensselaer high school field.

The Pumas then tackle the toughest foe on the 1955 schedule in Heidelberg. The Ohio squad is undefeated and conquered Baldwin-Wallace 34-0. This is the first meeting of the two schools and will be played at Pumaville on Nov. 5.

In the final 7 minutes the men from St. Joe came alive and marched 64 yards for their last touchdown. Tite climaxed the drive by going over from the 1 yard line. Effing's extra point made the final score 28-13.

The Aces drew first blood midway in the first period when after returning a St. Joe punt to their own 46, combined a powerful ground attack with timely passing to score. Evansville's great fullback, Ken Lutterbach, climaxed the drive by tallying from the 14-yard line.

SJ Fumbles Away Score

St. Joe passed up a scoring opportunity early in the second quarter when Evansville's safety man Jerry Trainer fumbled while returning a punt. George Sherwood, sophomore end, recovered for the Pumas on the Aces' 35 yard line. Four plays later, however, Evansville got the ball right back when, after St. Joe had driven to the 17-yard line, Halfback Bob Hamman fumbled and Bill Parish recovered for Evansville.

The Pumas finally scored in the last few minutes of the first half as Quarterback Ralph Tite spearheaded a drive that started on St. Joe's 44-yard line. From there, the Joemen marched down to the Evansville 9 yard line where a 15 yard holding penalty set them back to the 24. But the Pumas would not be denied this time as, on the next play, Tite passed to Hamman for the touchdown. The extra point was no good and the scoreboard read Evansville 6, St. Joseph's 6 at halftime.

The Aces second touchdown was set up the first time they got the ball in the second half by the passing combination of quarterback J. O. Jackson and end Gene Wallace. Evansville returned the opening kick-off to their own 38 and, after Lutterbach had gained 7 yards to the 45, Jackson passed to Wallace for a first down on St. Joe's 44 yard line. After two incomplete passes, Jackson hit Wallace with a 40 yard pass to the Puma's 4 yard stripe. Two plays later, Lutterbach bulled over for the score. This time Merkely's extra point split the up-rights to give Evansville a 13-6 lead.

Tite Passes for Final TD

The inability to hold on to the football cost St. Joe another touchdown in the third quarter when the Pumas took over the ball on Evansville's 13 yard line as a result of a bad pass from center on an attempted punt. However, two plays later, Puma Fullback Norb Daigle fumbled and Gene Wallace recovered for Evansville on the 12.

Ralph Tite figured prominently in St. Joseph's final touchdown as he passed 45 yards in four plays for the score. The pay-off pitch was a 6-yard pass to Daigle in the end zone. Merle Effing's extra point tied the score.

In the fourth quarter with the ball on St. Joseph's 28 in possession of the Pumas, Evansville safety man Dick Sinclair intercepted one

Walters Brews Magical Potion To Beat Butler

By Jim O'Brien

A sparse but nevertheless enthusiastic group of students inaugurated Homecoming festivities at the pep rally in preparation for the Butler game.

The Alma Mater, rendered in resonant fashion by the Glee Club, opened the program.

Coch Warns Against Butler

Then assistant coach Dale O'Connell, substituting for Bob Jaaron, briefed the gathering. He warned of Butler strength and predicted a close and hard-fought tussle.

Said O'Connell: "They have 25 to 30 ball players returning from a squad that defeated St. Joseph's 40-12 last year." The coach stressed the fact that only last year's starting center was absent in this year's line and "as far as we [the coaching staff] are concerned, this year's center is a better ballplayer than the fellow who graduated."

Walters Concocts Brew

O'Connell expressed for Coach Jaaron the latter's appreciation to the student body for its work on the various Homecoming projects. He concluded with a request that they sustain their spirit for tomorrow's game.

Following the coach's talk, a mysterious alchemist, uniquely portrayed by Willie Walters, appeared on the scene. Delving into the occult realm, Willie proceeded to concoct a "victory brew." Essential ingredients: "a piece of coach," "a slab of Sherwood," "a pinch of Pujo," "a gob of Knight," "a tub of Selinger," "a bunch of Bates," "a drop of Effing," "a tidbit of Tite," "a dash of Hamman," "a sprinkle of Scherschel," "a batch of Banary." One missing element, School Spirit. Solution: cheerleaders, three robust cheers. Result: "We'll Go a Long Long Way Together"—Victory!

Vic Pate Solos for Glee Club

The rally ended with the Glee Club's singing of the Alma Mater. As in the past the Glee Club was capably directed by Fr. Heiman.

Soloist Victor Pate, who won a clamorous ovation for his part in the Fred Waring arrangement of

"We'll Go a Long Long Way Together," and pianist Manuel Pasquil, who provided a soft background of melody for Pate, were spotlighted in this first performance of the 1955-56 Glee Club. Both are freshmen.

Dean Translates Philosophy Book

"A Short History of Philosophy", a translation from French to English of the history of philosophy by Rev. E. Maziarz, has recently been published.

The original work, "Precis d'Histoire de la Philosophie," was written by F. J. Thonnard.

Fr. Maziarz' book was published by the Desclee Co. of New York and is reported to be "going like hot cakes." The translation is 1087 pages long and took about 18 months to complete.

Fr. Maziarz plans to start work on a book of readings in the Philosophy of Mathematics and another on the problems of philosophy and science in the near future.

of Tite's passes on the 36 and returned it to the 21. From here they drove for the score, but not without trouble as the St. Joe forward wall put up a gallant goal line stand holding Evansville for two downs within inches of a touchdown. On third down, Lutterbach plowed over for the six-pointer. The successful point after touchdown gave Evansville a 20-13 lead.

With less than two minutes to play, St. Joe started a desperate march for a touchdown that ended in disaster when Lutterbach intercepted a pass on the Puma's 31-yard line and went all the way for a touchdown. The extra point was blocked and the final score read Evansville 26, St. Joseph's 13.
